Diaper Bag Travel Essentials

Diapers	1 x for every hour that you will be at the airport and on the plane
Baby Wipes	1 x packet
Diaper Cream	1 x small container
Burp Cloths	2 x for smaller babies, 1 x for older babies
Disposable Diaper Bags	20 x bags – these are great, not only for dirty diapers, but for wet clothes or dirty bibs etc.
Changing Pad	If your bag doesn't have one already
2 x Spare Outfits for Baby	We love to take one hot and one cold as you never know what temperature the plane with be!
1 x Baby Socks	We always take a pair of baby socks with us!
Pacifier	If your child uses one
Muslin Wrap	These are brilliant for so many things - as breastfeeding cover-ups, as a sheet for the plane bassinet and for a swaddle blanket for bubba!
Blanket	Because a lot of planes don't have baby blankets for the bassinet! So, take a nice thick one!
Hand Sanitizer	Honestly just so handy!
Comfort Toys
An Extra Shirt for You	More important for those with younger babies!
Nursing Cover	Handy, especially when babies are older as they tend to pull on the covers!

Age Dependent Items

A bib or two
Bottle(s)
Baby Formulae	We love pre-measuring our formulae and popping them in a handy formulae dispenser!
Sippy cup of milk, water, or juice (for toddlers)
Snacks (for older babies and toddlers)	Take snacks that take time and effort to eat, such as sultanas in a box.
Jar of baby food and a spoon.	Also, make sure you ask for an infant meal for baby!
Teething gel or rings
Age Appropriate Toys	We love to buy brand new toys to take along

Extra Suggestions

Wet Bag	For any wet clothes or burpies
Insulated Bottle Bag	For if baby is fussy with the temperature of their milk
Bottle Brush and Liquid Soap	Some mums love flying with a bottle brush and liquid soap and only one bottle! I love flying with enough bottles so that I don't have to bother washing them.
Lollipops	Lollipops are great as it takes a while for older babies or toddlers to suck on them.

Have fun! Good Luck! Please pop by and let us know how your trip was!
